ABOUT THE COLLEGE

ARULMIGU PALANIANDAVAR COLLEGE OF ARTS & CULTURE, PALANI was founded by Arulmigu Dhandayuthapaniswami Thirukoil, Palani in 1963. The birth of this institution marked not only the fulfilment of a longfelt need but also a great step forward in the upliftment of the educational status of this part of Dindigul District. Thanks to the remarkable zeal evinced by the Trustees of the Thirukoil and the high moral support extended to them by the then Chief Minister, Thiru. M.Bakthavachalam as well as by outstanding educationists like Dr. A.Lakshmanasamy Mudaliar and Rao Sahib Captain Dr. D.Sivasubramania Mudaliar, the college took shape much faster than expected and within a year it became a full-fledged First Grade College affiliated to Madras University. The College was affiliated to Madurai Kamaraj University in 1969, The institution has now come into its own as a First Grade College of mighty proportions. The College offers UG Degree Courses in eleven subjects and Post graduate courses in ten subjects besides M.Phil and Ph.D. in some disciplines.

The College is housed in the imposing building that stand on the Dindigul Road set against sylvan background and overlooked by the sacred Palani Hills. Standing right at the feet of the God Palaniandavar, this temple of learning has drawn over 1650 votaries opting for various courses of study. Juxtaposed with the main buildings of the College stand the no less imposing hostel buildings. Arulmigu Palani Andavar College of Indian Culture was merged with the Arulmigu Palani Andavar Arts College in 1981-82 and renamed as Arulmigu Palani Andavar College of Arts & Culture. We are confident that the day is not very far off when
